"Sarah's a go-getter, and she thinks Freddie is lazy," says a source. "He wishes she were more understanding that it's not easy for him to get work."

SARAH MICHELLE & FREDDIE

NO SYMPATHY HERE!

Freddie kept his fans informed about his spinal surgery, but after he tweeted that he was "learning to walk again," Sarah (above, with the kids) dialed back on his drama. "I can't even," she said tartly in an interview. "He did have very serious surgery, but his 'learning to walk again' has been greatly exaggerated."

ON THE ROCKS

THE LOVE STORY COULD BE OVER FOR SARAH MICHELLE GELLAR AND FREDDIE PRINZE JR.

Last month, Sarah Michelle Gellar and Freddie Prinze Jr. marked their 13th wedding anniversary, making theirs one of Hollywood's more longer-lived unions. Behind the scenes, though, work- and money-related stresses are threatening to tear these former lovebirds — who met on the set of 1997's I Know What You Did Last Summer and are the parents of Charlotte, 6, and Rocky, 3 — apart.

"They've been at each other's throats for a year now," says an insider. "It's been a long, slow decline for them. At this point, it's pretty clear they're together only for the kids."

Trouble set in last November, when Freddie, 39, had spinal surgery and became a little too comfortable in the role of stay-at-home dad. "Sarah has been the primary breadwinner for a long time," says the source. "She felt sorry for Freddie when he was bedridden, but then she noticed that he was in no rush to get back into acting. He sits around all day playing video games and fighting with strangers on Twitter." The difference in their worlds was all too apparent one day last month, when Sarah, 38, was on her way back to Los Angeles from promotional duties in New York, and Freddie was having brunch with the kids and a nanny at a Brentwood restaurant, looking stressed and preoccupied with his phone. "It definitely seemed like he was going through a rough patch," says an eyewitness seated near the star.

Now the two are arguing about money and much more. "Sarah thinks Freddie spends too much on childish things," says the source. "She wants him to grow up; if he doesn't, it will be the end of them."

SELENA QUITTING THE FAME GAME!

"Selena's life is always under a magnifying glass," says an insider. "She doesn't want to deal with it anymore. This isn't a phase she'll get over."

Selena Gomez is back in a big way with her well-reviewed new album, Revival — but sources say the 23-year-old is itching to ditch it all for a simpler, quieter life.

"Underneath her spirited façade, Selena is a mess," says an insider. "She cries all the time thinking about the hypocrisy and backstabbing that come with the entertainment industry. This album will be her last — she only did it because she was under contract — and she's told her agent that she's done with acting too."

Selena has only recently emerged from a dark period marked by her tumultuous relationship with Justin Bieber, the cancellation of tour dates in 2013 and a two-week stint in rehab attributed to "exhaustion." Though she's now revealed that she was undergoing chemotherapy for lupus at the time, "she was also staying up all night partying with Justin," says the source, "and she was definitely doing drugs."

Even a Mexico getaway in April generated crushing headlines, as the star was fat-shamed for her extra-curvy bikini body. Now Selena is ready to step out of the spotlight for good. She has a tour planned for next summer, and she'll play a sorority girl in Neighbors 2, "but after that, she's out," says the insider. "Just because she made a lot of money in Hollywood doesn't mean she has to stay."

GWEN'S PICK-ME-UP

Who couldn't use a boost as they're going through a divorce? When it comes to Gwen Stefani, though, a spa treatment or new pair of shoes just won't do: The 46-year-old mother of three is treating herself to a breast lift. In August, less than a week after filing papers for her split from Gavin Rossdale, Gwen was spotted at L.A.'s Cedars-Sinai Hospital consulting with a prominent doctor who specializes in breast reconstruction and cosmetic surgery. "She swore she would have them done after giving birth last year to [her third son] Apollo, so she's been thinking about it for a while," says a source. "Now she's put herself on the fast track to a new and improved bod." The timing couldn't be better, as the surgery should give a lift to Gwen's love life as well. "She's torn up over the divorce," the insider adds, "but she's getting excited at the thought of meeting someone new." Sounds like her heart — and her chest — will be on the mend soon!

"Gwen plans on waiting until after she's healed from her surgery to start dating again," an insider says of the Voice star.

DAVID MISTAKEN FOR RICKY

They're both English and bearded, but beyond that, there haven't been too many similarities between David Beckham and Ricky Gervais — until now. Recently, an insider close to Becks reveals, the soccer icon, 40, has been mistaken more than once for the comic actor, 54. "David's looking haggard lately," explains the source. "He's been in the sun a lot and partying. Now he's had a real wake-up call, and he's determined to get back into shape again." Enjoy it while you can, Ricky!

"Someone at SoulCycle referred to David as Ricky," says a source, "and he definitely wasn't happy. He told the guy to get his names straight."

Mischa "is even asking former costars from The O.C. if they can help," a source says.

MISCHA BEGGING FOR WORK

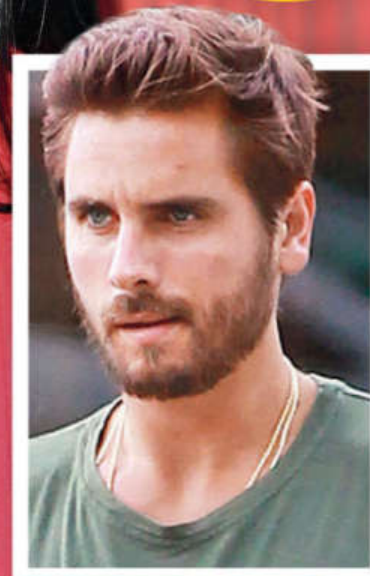

What goes around comes around is a life lesson Mischa Barton apparently never learned, and it's hitting her hard now that she's broke. With her Beverly Hills house in foreclosure, the 29-year-old former star of The O.C. — who has also dealt with a DUI and what she called "a full-on breakdown" since her series ended — has been "begging every contact she ever had in Hollywood for jobs," says a source. "The problem is that when Mischa was a big star, she wasn't the nicest person. She thought she was more important than anyone on any set, and now no one wants to help her. It's a very sad situation."

OK! INSIDER

KOURTNEY LEAVING SCOTT BEHIND

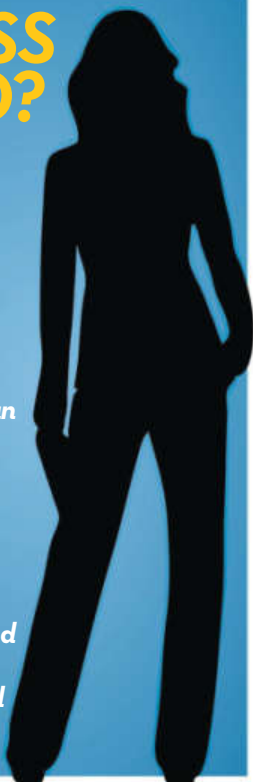

Kourtney Kardashian had her own private Burning Man ceremony in her backyard recently, sending all reminders of ex Scott Disick up in flames. “She got rid of everything that belonged to him,” says a source, referring to the hard-partying philanderer who fathered three children with Kourtney. “The thought of trying to communicate with him about collecting his stuff made Kourt sick to her stomach. She even put all the cards and notes he’d given her into the fire.” The purge was a family affair, with sisters Kim, Khloé and Kylie in attendance and Kendall chiming in via FaceTime. “They were drinking wine and cheering every time Kourtney threw something into the fire pit,” says the insider. “She cried a bit but says she feels so much lighter now.”

Scott checked back into rehab last month in an attempt to win custody of his kids. But his relationship with Kourtney is unsalvageable.

GUESS WHO?

This Oscar-nominated golden girl was heard sniffing in the bathroom at the popular Hollywood restaurant Dan Tana's — and our spy says it wasn't due to illness or heartbreak. Well, she's always favored the sex, drugs and rock & roll lifestyle!

EMMA ROOTING FOR RYAN

Beleaguered dad Ryan Gosling has a high-profile cheerleader in his corner: Emma Stone, his costar in Crazy Stupid Love, Gangster Squad and the upcoming La La Land. “Emma expected fatherhood would change Ryan,” says a source — the actor’s daughter with Eva Mendes turned 1 in September — “but not like this. He’s just so miserable and withdrawn, and he told her he feels like he’s always in trouble with Eva.” Emma has begged Ryan to let her take him out for a little fun, but that only heightened his paranoia. “Eva isn’t happy that Ryan is doing another movie with Emma,” says the source. “He’d rather retreat to his trailer alone than risk inciting her wrath.”

An insider says relationship pressures seem to be getting to Ryan.

HAYDEN FIGHTING THE BABY BLUES

As Nashville's unhappy new mom Juliette Barnes, Hayden Panettiere has been exceptionally convincing this season — and now, sadly, we know it's more than just acting chops. Hayden, who gave birth last December to Kaya, her daughter with fiancé Wladimir Klitschko, has checked herself into a treatment center for postpartum depression. In a recent interview, the 26-year-old shared a bit about her struggle: "There's a lot of people out there that think it's not real," she said, stressing that her blues never involved thoughts of hurting her child. "It's something that's completely uncontrollable. And it's really painful, and it's really scary and women need a lot of support." Hopefully, thanks to Hayden raising awareness, now they'll get it.

CHRISTINA THE DIVA IS BACK!

Christina Aguilera is gunning for a new title: Chief Diva of The Voice. Though the hit show is still rolling on season 9, production on season 10 has begun as well — and sources say Xtina, taking over again from Gwen Stefani, has the crew seeing as red as the show's famous chairs. "Christina is a nightmare," says an on-set insider. "Last time she was on the show, she made outrageous food and scheduling demands and even had the upholstery on her chair customized to velvet. She's only been back for a few days, but already she's forced everyone to come in superearly, on short notice, so she could wrap in time for a dinner date. Then she showed up an hour late — a total slap in the face to the crew." Let the Battle Rounds begin!

"We were happy to see Christina go," says a Voice source. "Now she's upsetting everyone again."

COUPLES NEWS

Jenny & Donnie

FALLING APART

"Their relationship is doomed," a source says of the couple's yearlong marriage. "It's just a matter of time before they split."

When asked in February about her relationship with husband Donnie Wahlberg, Jenny McCarthy said, "I want to be dependent and a girl and a wife and domesticated. I want to be Mrs. Wahlberg." But in reality, a source says, Jenny, 42, is hardly the Happy Homemaker. "Donnie expects Jenny to behave like a wife, cooking and taking care of the family instead of relying on outside help," the insider says. "But she resists his alpha male act." Her rep denies it, but the source maintains, "She's in danger of driving him out the door."

After dating for about a year, Donnie, 46, and Jenny married in August 2014, broadcasting their love to the world, literally — the first episode of their A&E show, Donnie Loves Jenny, was titled "The Wedding." But as time went on, the source says, the cracks began to show. The quirks that initially attracted Donnie to his bubbly blonde bride now only serve to annoy him. "When she gets a tattoo or dyes her hair on a whim it drives Donnie crazy," the insider says. "He tells her to act like an adult."

To make matters worse, they have conflicting ideas about how to parent their blended family (he has two sons, she has one), and the source says Jenny wants to rule the roost there: "She won't let him take be a strong father figure." At this point, the insider says, their reality show may be the only thing holding them together, predicting: "Once it's over, their relationship could be too."

A source says, "Gisele can't stand pity and won't let anyone see how difficult things are. She'll do whatever it takes to maintain her status."

Gisele

LIVING A LIE

When Gisele Bündchen recently toured the grounds of chichi Boston private school Shady Hill, apparently seeking to enroll her kids for 2016, it seemed confirmation that she's staying put with husband Tom Brady for the foreseeable future. But a source says her happy-family act with Tom, 38, is a farce. Gisele, 35, "is so concerned about public perception, she's going about business as usual," the insider says. "She doesn't want the world to know the turmoil her marriage is in." The couple are in therapy, the source says, but still "fighting a lot" — not that anyone will see it: "Gisele wants other women to be jealous of her perfect husband and life."

"Matt's wanted to make it official for a while," a source says.

Keri & Matthew

SECRETLY ENGAGED!

Although Keri Russell's divorce from Shane Deary may not be finalized, she's already set to tie the knot with another man — her beau of two years and costar on The Americans, Matthew Rhys. At first Keri, 39, was reluctant to accept Matt's proposal, fearing that their personal life might detract from the show. But Matt, 40, wouldn't take no for an answer and talked Keri into a hush-hush engagement. Since the couple has been happily cohabiting for some time, a source says, not much will change when they wed: "They're a family."

Blake & Ryan MOVING TO L.A.

Although Blake Lively and Ryan Reynolds chose to live in secluded Bedford, N.Y., after they married in 2012, a source says Blake's missing Hollywood — especially since her lifestyle website, Preserve, went bust. "Blake's desperate to renew her career," the insider says, adding that the actress convinced a reluctant Ryan, 38, to house hunt in L.A. "by promising that they'll still live in Bedford part-time." The source says that after stumbling with her tech venture, Blake, 28, is eager to get back to acting. At least she'll have plenty of leftover merch from Preserve to decorate a new pad!

Chrissy & John's BABY JOY

When Chrissy Teigen opened up about her fertility struggles on the Sept. 21 episode of FabLife, it seems she had a surprise in store. “John and I were having trouble,” she said to her cohosts on the talk show. “We would’ve had kids five, six years ago if it had happened.” But exactly three weeks later, Chrissy, 29, and John, 36, announced that they’re finally expecting! “They were so discouraged after multiple failed IVF treatments that they almost lost hope, but they hung in there for each other,” a source says. “Now they’re closer than ever.”

INSTAGRAM/CHRISSTEIGEN

“We’re so excited that it’s finally happening,” Chrissy gushed on her Instagram pregnancy announcement.

“Gigi got caught up in Joe’s lifestyle,” a source says.

Gerard SETTLING DOWN

Gerard Butler has racked up a long list of Hollywood exes, but a source says his playboy days are behind him — he’s convinced that his girlfriend of a year, Morgan Brown, is The One. “Gerard loves the chase and usually gets bored quickly,” the insider says of the 300 star, who’s been linked to Jennifer Aniston, Jessica Biel and Ashley Greene. “But Morgan is different. For once, he can see himself committing.” The fact that Morgan, 39, is not in the entertainment industry (she’s an interior designer) is especially appealing to the down-to-earth Scot, 45. Says the source: “He’s realized that sharing his life, not just his bed, is what’s important.”

Normally buff Gerard is so comfortable with Morgan, he’s packed on love pounds!

Joe & Gigi's PARTY DETOX

Even though Gigi Hadid slammed the body-shaming trolls who criticized her figure during New York Fashion Week in September, she’s determined to whip herself into tip-top shape — and she’s convinced her boyfriend Joe Jonas to get on board too. “Gigi has very big dreams and goals, and she isn’t going to let partying get in the way,” a source says. “She’s vowed to cut out alcohol completely until she’s dropped the 10 pounds she gained from going out with Joe.” The couple have even started waking up early for sessions with Gigi’s trainer. So will it last? The source says Gigi, 20, is “very disciplined” — but it’ll be a miracle if Joe, 26, sticks to it. Hey, only one of them is a supermodel!

Sandra

SEXING IT UP

Sandra Bullock revealed in a recent interview that she's been hanging on to her high school cheerleading uniform, saying it could be handy for a "sexy night."

Could Bryan Randall be the guy she's been saving it for? A source says

Sandy, 51, has been branching out in the bedroom to keep her new beau, 49, interested. "He's made her feel sexy again," the source says, noting that her 2010 divorce from cheating ex Jesse James "shattered her confidence." But these days, she's comfortable enough to browse sex books at The Grove's Barnes & Noble, according to a witness who saw her on Oct. 6: "You could tell she was having fun." It's about time!

A source says Sandy "wants to keep things hot."

"Garrett seemed to be using the fact that Kirsten was nowhere in sight to his advantage," a source says.

Garrett's WANDERING EYE

While his girlfriend, Kirsten Dunst, has been busy promoting FX's Fargo, Garrett Hedlund hasn't been lacking for company. An eyewitness says Garrett, 31, was flirting with a sexy brunette at The Satellite in Los Angeles on Oct. 10. "He was acting single," the source says, adding that the Pan star bought drinks for all of the girl's friends too. "He was chatting with different women throughout the night. If that was my boyfriend, I'd be worried!" Kirsten, 33, and Garrett met on the set of 2012's On the Road, and in August Kirsten said, "he feels like family to me." But an insider says the couple may have split since then, which could explain Garrett's behavior. If not, it sounds like they may be parting soon!

ASHTON

Bro Tru

Their daughter, Wyatt, is a little over a year old, which means that Ashton Kutcher and Mila Kunis have finally made it through some of the most challenging days of early parenthood. But instead of celebrating, sources say, the couple have been spending much of their time at each other's throats. "They've been arguing nonstop," an insider explains. "They just got into a huge blowout the other day — it was, without a doubt, their worst fight ever."

WARNING SIGNS

The spark: Ashton, 37, figured out that 32-year-old Mila has been reading his emails. "He's tech-savvy enough to know when his account is accessed," the insider explains, "and it happened so often that he put two and two together. He's also caught Mila going through his phone more than once, so when this happened, he really got upset. He accused her of spying on him, and she freaked out.”

As is often the case, however, it seems Mila’s snooping is symptomatic of much larger problems. While they tied the knot only three months ago, in early July, the insider says that Mila has had questions pretty much from the start of their relationship in 2012 about Ashton’s ability to be faithful. “When they first began dating, she definitely had some reservations about him because of his track record.”

THE BURDEN OF A BFF

Ashton and Mila have been friends for years — ever since they played boyfriend and girlfriend on their mutual breakout series, That ’70s Show — and she was one of his go-to confidantes during the breakdown of his first marriage, to Demi Moore. “Mila knew that he’d cheated on Demi, and in fact, he was confiding in Mila while all that was going on. He’d pour his heart out to her. As a friend,

HE’S BABY CRAZY!

Even though little Wyatt (right) is only a year old, Ashton is pressuring Mila to get pregnant again ASAP.

HANDS ON

Right now, Ashton and Mila spend almost all their together time with the baby, which is both good (for the baby) and bad (for their marriage).

She's Hiring A Granny Nanny

Mila and Ashton didn't originally intend to hire a nanny for baby Wyatt; they wanted to take care of her themselves. But an insider says they've finally realized that a little professional help might take some pressure off them – and even improve their relationship. However, having seen the recent spate of Hollywood nannies-turned-mistresses, Mila's looking for someone older and experienced, more like her own mother (pictured above) than the usual twentysomething babysitter. "She doesn't want Ashton to be tempted," the insider says.

she was always very supportive and nonjudgmental. But as a wife, she sees things differently. It's always in the back of her mind now that if he did it to Demi, he could do it to her."

So when Ashton accused her of prying, Mila turned it around on him. "She told him it's his own fault," the insider says. "He's been away from home more lately, going to business

HIS OTHER WOMEN

Ashton's track record is a bit checkered, to say the least. Meet the ladies who've caused Mila to question his ability to stay faithful.

BRITTNEY JONES

In July 2010, this young brunette met Ashton and his wife Demi while bowling. He slipped her his number at the end of the evening, and invited her over for a roll in the hay a few weeks later, while Demi was out of town. "He told me that they had an open relationship," Brittney, then 21, has claimed. "I was used."

SARA LEAL

Over a year later, in September 2011, Ashton invited Sara Leal, then 22, and a friend to a private hot tub party in his hotel suite. He reportedly told the girls that he was separated from his wife; whether that was true at the time, it was true soon enough – Demi announced a split soon after the news broke.

He's told her that if she can't trust him, they can't be together" meetings and out with his buddies, and it drives her nuts that he never wears his wedding ring. He says that he doesn't deserve to be treated this way, but she says that he's pushed her to it"

THEY NEED A REMEDY

Whoever's at fault — and it certainly sounds as though they've both made some mistakes — the insider says that

LINN MASSINGER

In June 2012 — after he'd started seeing Mila — Ashton was busted with Linn, then 22, when photos of them in bed together were published. "He told Mila it was nothing more than a little drunken cuddling," the insider says. "It was early days for their relationship, so she didn't dump him over it."

Ashton's 2013 portrayal of Apple cofounder Steve Jobs didn't exactly set the world on fire.

FALLING STAR

Mila's lack of faith in Ashton is only one of their problems; his career woes have also taken a toll. "He's really worried," an insider says. "The offers haven't exactly been flooding in." And it hasn't helped that 2013's Jobs — Ashton's last major film role — is being compared unfavorably to the new biopic of the former Apple leader. (Steve Jobs star Michael Fassbender, left, sarcastically said he "studied" Ashton's performance.)

"He loses his temper if anyone even mentions the new movie."

Mila and Ashton are now dealing with a severe and troubling lack of trust. "And it doesn't help that they don't have the passion that they did in the beginning of their relationship. They've only been married a few months, but the honeymoon's definitely over."

The insider says that, so far, the couple haven't agreed to go to marriage counseling but they'd better consider it if they want their love to last. "Things are pretty ugly between them right now," the source says. "If they don't get into couples therapy soon, the situation might implode."

Counseling certainly sounds like a better idea than Ashton's proposed solution: another baby! The insider says that he's been hassling Mila to get pregnant again, claiming that she "promised" him she would. "He wants her to have babies back-to-back, so that they can have a big family, but she wants to wait a while before trying again. She says that being pregnant was more difficult and all-consuming than she expected."

Given that Mila's still young, it's hard to see what the big rush is — but Ashton seems to be fixating on her "broken promise," perhaps so that he has some ammunition in what's quickly turning into an unfortunate situation. "He's even given her an ultimatum," the insider says. "He said he feels lied to and told her that she's got to stop spying on him and start talking about having another kid or else. Mila, meanwhile, really wants to be able to trust him — but she has no idea what's next for them."

TRUE
ROMANCE

"Lamar knew he had it all with Khloé but threw it away," says a source. In the days before his collapse, he reportedly wept as he confessed his undying love for her.

Lamar

TOO YOUNG TO DIE

Lamar Odom's young life has been colored by some huge highs — like his two basketball championships with the L.A. Lakers and his movieworthy romance with Khloé Kardashian — and painful lows, including the sudden deaths of several family members and dear friends. But on Oct. 13, he tragically hit his lowest low yet: He was found unconscious in a Nevada brothel and rushed to a Las Vegas hospital, where he fell into a coma. As he struggled to overcome the after-effects of several strokes and organ failures, prayers for the 35-year-old gentle giant ricochet around Hollywood and the sports world.

"The saddest part is that Lamar has such a huge heart," says an insider. "He's a sweet guy who just has a lot of issues."

In recent years, Lamar's personal struggles were more on display than ever. After emerging from humble and painful beginnings — his father, Joe Odom, was a heroin addict, and he was raised by his grandmother in Queens after his mom died of colon cancer when he was 12 — he found a fairy-tale sort of love with Khloé, whom he wed after a monthlong whirlwind courtship in 2009. Their bond, they liked to say, was “unbreakable,” and the Kardashian clan accepted him with open arms, with Kim once gushing, “Lamar is one of the sweetest, most compassionate guys I know.”

But by 2012, when Lamar was traded to the Dallas Mavericks, his demons started surfacing. Struggling with substance abuse, Lamar went to rehab, but reports of his drug habit, including the use of crack cocaine, would dog him for years, along with cheating rumors. Wild nights out seemed to be his way of dealing with a latent, nagging pain — and though Khloé often defended him, even she couldn’t turn a blind eye following their fourth anniversary, when reports claimed Lamar spent two days on a bender outside L.A. with two women. “I shouldn’t be surprised anymore. SMH,” she tweeted.

They finally signed divorce papers in July — but Khloé has long maintained an “unbreakable” love for her wayward ex. “I will never, ever not love Lamar,” she recently admitted, adding, “I was so obsessed with him, in a healthy way. He was my husband, and I still wish he was.”

BEST INTENTIONS

Khloé and Lamar were reportedly hooking up in recent months in a suburban Las Vegas love nest. But a source tells OK! that when Lamar asked his ex — who’s dating NBA star James Harden — to come out the weekend of Oct. 10, she turned him down, and their conversation turned heated. “She was focused on Kourtney’s split from Scott [Disick] and had agreed to babysit Mason,” says the insider, who adds, “Lamar really needed her. He was letting things get to him, and he wasn’t in great shape.” When he called Khloé the next day, on Oct. 11, she could tell he’d been partying... and promptly hung up.

Lamar as a high school basketball prodigy in 1996.

“Now, of course, she’s blaming herself,” says the source. “She wishes she hadn’t gotten mad, but she was tired of treating him with kid gloves.” And while there are dissenting reports about whether Lamar was abusing drugs at the Love Ranch brothel — owner Dennis Hof said he only witnessed the intake of herbal sexual supplements, but many think illegal substances were involved — a source says Lamar had planned in recent months to clean up his act.

“He was doing so well,” says the source. “He considered Khloé his motivational ‘prize.’” As for Khloé, the source says, “Her heart is absolutely broken. It’s been tragedy after tragedy for Lamar, and his demons finally got the best of him.”

OK!

FAMILY TIES

Lamar’s father, Joe, was absent and on heroin when Lamar was a kid; his mother, Cathy Mercer (above), died of colon cancer when he was just 12 years old. In a 2011 episode of Khloé & Lamar, the Lakers star attempted to reconcile with his dad by hosting him for dinner.

His Haunted Life

LAMAR HAS FACED AN INORDINATE AMOUNT OF LOSS OVER THE YEARS

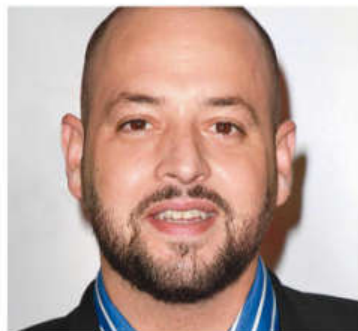

FATHERLY LOVE

When Lamar was 26, his 7-month-old son, Jayden, died of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome. (He has two other children with ex Liza Morales.) Lamar wrote Jayden’s name, plus his mom’s and grandma’s, on his sneakers before games.

FRIEND FOR LIFE

Lamar’s BFF Jamie Sangouthai died suddenly from a drug overdose in June. A devastated Lamar broke the news to Khloé, who later admitted, “Anything can cause [Lamar] to spiral, and that’s the last thing I want for him.”

HOME ALONE Their lavish 7,800-square-foot L.A. mansion was bought by Drew in 2002; since then, it's doubled in value to $8 million.

HEARTBREAK KIDS The couple are prepared to battle it out for their daughters, Frankie, 1 (in Will's arms, above), and Olive, 3. "Drew would fight tooth and nail for full custody," says a source. "The claws would come out."

DIVORCE SHOCKER

AFTER THREE YEARS AND TWO CHILDREN, DREW BARRYMORE AND WILL KOPELMAN ARE CALLING IT QUITS

When it comes to marriage, the third time wasn't the charm for Drew Barrymore. Sadly, OK! has learned that the actress, 40, and her art consultant husband, 38-year-old Will Kopelman, are ending their three-year union. "They've been having trouble for a while now," says an insider. "They tried living apart, but it didn't help — and now they've decided to split."

Though Drew lasted longer with Will than she did with her first two husbands — she and Welsh bar owner Jeremy Thomas split after 19 days in 1994, and comedian Tom Green filed for divorce five months after they tied the knot in 2001 — sources say it was a rushed relationship nonetheless. When the couple married in a romantic ceremony in Montecito, Calif., in June 2012, they had been dating for a little over a year and Drew was pregnant with their first daughter, Olive. "It was a whirlwind," says the insider. "They wanted to see it through because they were expecting."

Former wild child Drew, who was in rehab at 14 and emancipated from her parents a year later, has long vacillated between the desire to settle down and the need for drama. "Giving her girls a normal life is really important to her," says the source, "but at times the 'crazy' Drew shines through. One minute she's up, the next she's down. Will didn't see that side of her until they were married."

There are many difficult details to hash out, from custody to division of assets (while Will has an estimated net worth of $10 million, Drew's fortune is pegged at $140 million). One thing is certain: It will be painful and costly for all involved.

At times the 'crazy' Drew shines through. Will didn't see that until they were married"

RESHAPE YOUR ENTIRE BODY IN 30 DAYS?

ERICA SHIELDS
Ph.D., MPH

As incredible as it sounds, groundbreaking research has just identified a compound that can not only help you lose weight, but can actually reshape your entire body, reducing waist size, hip size, thigh and buttock circumference, belly bulge, and... last but not least... cause a significant loss of actual fat mass from all over your body. Has the "miracle pill" finally arrived?

"IT'S SORT OF LIKE EATING AN ENTIRE CUPCAKE, BUT ONLY ABSORBING A FRACTION OF THE CALORIES..."

"The shape of your entire body will actually change. You'll have a tinier waist, your love handles will begin to disappear, and you'll have thinner thighs for the first time in years... everybody will notice."

IT DOESN'T HAPPEN VERY OFTEN, BUT EVERY ONCE IN A GREAT WHILE A NEW WEIGHT-LOSS PRODUCT COMES ALONG THAT REALLY GETS ME EXCITED.

And, the fact that I get to tell you about it before Dr. Oz features it on his super-popular TV show is "icing on the cake"... or is it cupcake? The product is called GlyStrictin, and, unlike your run-of-the-mill "diet pill" that merely helps you lose weight (while following a strict low-calorie diet), GlyStrictin can actually reshape your entire body... dropping inch upon inch of unsightly fat from your waist, hips, thighs and tummy... even if you're eating more than 2,000 calories a day! Some people are calling it a "miracle pill." However, this "miracle pill" is backed by serious clinical research published in the highly respected British Journal of Nutrition.

THE POWER TO RESHAPE YOUR ENTIRE BODY

While you and I only care about results (and the results are incredible), the scientists I've spoken to are even more excited about how this compound works.

So here we go. In a randomized, double-blind, placebo-controlled clinical trial, study subjects took the functional compound in GlyStrictin along with their main meal of the day. Thirty minutes later, they had a significantly lower percentage of blood glucose increment from baseline, a smaller increase in C-peptide and, forty-five to one hundred twenty minutes after they ate, subjects also experienced a smaller insulin increase compared to placebo. Additionally, with respect to time, researchers observed a significant effect on the hunger hormone ghrelin as well as on satiety and desire to eat. The end result was that the specialized compound was shown to cause a significant reduction in body weight, fat mass, BMI, adipose tissue thickness, and waist/hip/thigh circumference while maintaining lean body mass.

SO HERE IT IS IN PLAIN ENGLISH:

People who took this incredible compound not only lost weight, but lost a significant amount of squishy, flabby, unattractive body fat from those hard-to-target places we all hate: our hips, thighs and butt. It also caused a significant reduction in the amount of fat around the waist (yes, that means you can start saying goodbye to your love handles), helping study subjects achieve that tight, sexy, firm figure we all dream of. And the best part? The compound did all this on 2,000 to 2,200 calories a day! In other words, without requiring anybody to follow a ridiculously low-calorie diet or work out for hours every day!

And because of the way this breakthrough formula works, you can still satisfy your sweet tooth (as long as you don't go crazy)... each and every day! So why do I call it the Cupcake Diet? Think of it this way... it's sort of like eating a whole cupcake, but only absorbing a fraction of the calories. How's that for amazing? (Of course, we don't advocate eating a cupcake as a meal, and this example is used for illustrative purposes only)

WHERE CAN YOU GET IT?

A company here in the USA has acquired the patented compound. This unique formula has been exclusively licensed to Limitless Worldwide™ under the trade name GlyStrictin™. And trust me on this... once you start taking it and see how quickly it transforms your entire body, you'll be a believer, too.

SO WHAT'S THE CATCH?

It seems like there's always a catch with diet pills... so what's the catch with GlyStrictin? The price. A full 30-day supply of GlyStrictin will cost you about $100... in other words, don't go looking for it at your local Walmart. Having a hard time finding GlyStrictin? Can't wait? You can order it directly from Limitless Worldwide™ by calling 1-800-403-2515 or visit their website at

2. For each spider, cut 8 curved sections from pretzels for legs. Set aside remaining pretzel pieces.
3. Place chocolate chips in microwave-safe bowl. Microwave at Medium (50 percent) for 30 seconds; stir. If necessary, microwave at an additional 10 seconds at a time, stirring after each heating, until chips are melted and smooth when stirred.
4. Transfer to small, heavy-duty plastic bag. Cut off one corner of bag about 1/4 inch from the tip.
5. For each spider, place pumpkin on prepared tray. Attach pretzel legs and white or yellow candy "eyes" to spider with melted chocolate; place dot of melted chocolate on each eye. Allow chocolate to set before moving.

A Simple Weight Loss Secret

How One Fit Mom of 3 Got Her Body Back

"No matter what your goal, whether it's to lose a few pounds, or to completely transform your body, you can make it happen."

Sarah Evans, mother of 3, is living proof that having the body of your dreams is indeed achievable with even the busiest schedule.

Open any fitness magazine, or jump on social media, and you're bombarded with rock-hard abs, toned glutes and inspirational quotes telling you to sacrifice everything to attain your fitness goals. Instead of feeling inspired it can easily leave you feeling deflated. It's challenging balancing all of the responsibilities and priorities in your life and making room for your own fitness goals.

Here's the good news: Achieving a toned and healthy body is completely attainable, even for the busiest of us – you just need to know where to begin.

Before having my kids, I was never very active and I definitely wasn't into fitness. It took the birth of our third child to realize that fitness needed to become a part of my life, especially if I wanted to stay healthy and live a long, happy life. I know firsthand how challenging it can be to live an active lifestyle with the responsibility of having three kids. Sometimes I feel like there's just not enough time or energy in the day to get done all the things that I need to do, let alone take care of myself. I wake up early and exercise before getting the kids up for school. Some days my batteries are low and it's hard for me to find the energy and motivation to get my body

"Supplements have played a big role in helping me achieve and maintain my health, energy and fitness. What I put in my body matters to me. That's why I've stuck with BPI products. They care about quality and I feel they care about their customer's results."

going. That is until I discovered Pre-workout supplements. The one I found in my local grocery store was called 1MR Vortex. It caught my attention because it called out the fact that it would fuel my workouts – and that's exactly what I needed! I mix one scoop of it in my bottle of water before I exercise – and it actually tastes really good. Not only did it give me the energy I was looking for, but I also started to lose weight faster and found myself getting more toned. After doing some research online I discovered that many of the key ingredients in the product had real weight loss benefits. Combining this, with eating better, I've been able to completely change my body.

No matter what your goal, whether it's to lose a few pounds, or to completely transform your body, you can make it happen. You make time for what's important. I wanted to feel comfortable and confident in my own skin, and I wanted to have the energy to keep up with my kids. In short, I wanted to enjoy my life. I've found that now, and if I can do it, then so can you:

Her luminescent portrayal of Bella Swan in Twilight made Kristen Stewart a global phenomenon, but the actress was no overnight sensation, as she started her career at the tender age of 9. And while the supernatural franchise made her a star, this L.A.-born beauty refuses to be pigeonholed, moving from quirky comedies to heavy dramas to her latest, the sci-fi love story Equals, opposite Nicholas Hoult.

Kristen has clearly matured since her Twilight time, when she grappled with the glare of the limelight — and her real-life romance with Robert Pattinson only heightened the scrutiny. “It was really intense,” she admits. “I was constantly anxious, kind of a control freak.” Now 25, Kristen’s more comfortable in her approach to life. “I made a conscious decision to avoid blockbusters and choose smaller projects that satisfy me artistically,” she says. Kristen took a break from filming Woody Allen’s next movie to talk about trusting her gut and following her heart.

It couldn't have been easy dealing with all the attention you received earlier in your career. Are you still wary of the spotlight?

I’ve always been shy. I’m still that way, even after I’ve been in this business basically my whole life. I originally wanted to write and maybe work as a director, but then acting took over. Acting was always a refuge from the real world — it allowed me to forget who I was and whatever I was anxious about.

After rocketing to stardom in the Twilight Saga series, Kristen Stewart has worked hard to stay true to herself

SHADY LADIES

Though Kristen has been dating Alicia Cargile, a visual effects producer, since August 2014, she has never felt obliged to put a label on her sexuality. As she has said, “I don’t feel like it would be true for me to be like, ‘I’m coming out!’”

Are you more relaxed these days?

I feel I can be myself more and not get sidetracked. I had too many people telling me what I should be doing, and it was very confusing because I’ve always been the type who likes to do her own thing. That’s why I decided to be true to myself.

Sounds like you embrace risk.

I definitely have a rebellious side! I like to be able to do things my own way and carve out my own identity. When it comes to my work, I won’t do any film where I don’t feel completely committed to the story and the character I’m playing. I need to be fully invested emotionally.

Equals* is about a futuristic society that has vanquished emotions. How did you tackle that?

It was scary in a lot of ways. Nicholas and I play people who fall in love even though that’s taboo. We would spend a lot of time just talking to each other and not showing visible emotion.

The millions of young girls who related to you in Twilight still look up to you. What advice would you give them?

Sometimes we all need to get crazy and not feel inhibited — there should be a way for us to let loose more often and not worry about making mistakes. It’s important to understand what you really want in life. Some people never figure that out... but I’ve been able to make sense of how I want to live. The most important thing is to be happy. OK!

Forbidden lovers: Kristen falls for Nicholas Hoult onscreen in Equals.

Kristen learned research skills from Juliette.

Julianne taught Kristen to tap into her feelings.

Role Models

"I learned a lot by working with some incredibly talented actors," Kristen says, citing Juliette Binoche and Julianne Moore in particular. In the drama Clouds of Sils Maria, "I was fascinated by how much research Juliette put into her preparation," Kristen says. "She is constantly going as deeply as she can." Kristen says Julianne, with whom she appeared in Still Alice, takes a very different approach: "She was focused more on the emotions of her character, being very introspective and relying more on her instincts."

There's nothing ho-hum about Halloween Baking Championship host Richard Blais' roast chicken. "The combination of the lemon and black pepper perks up the typically mild flavor of chicken, and the spicy brine adds a kick to the dish without overpowering the other flavors," Richard tells OK! "It's a perfect weeknight meal to whip up and impress your dinner guests!"

RICHARD BLAIS' Lemon Curd & Black Pepper Roast Chicken

Ingredients

- 2 tbsp. black peppercorns
- 2 tsp. Szechuan peppercorns (optional)
- 2 tsp. coriander seeds
- 8 cups water
- 1 cup kosher salt
- 1 fresh red Thai chili pepper, sliced
- 1 (4- to 5-lb.) free-range chicken
- 4 large egg yolks
- 1/3 cup sugar
- Grated zest and juice of 2 lemons
- 2 tbsp. unsalted butter, diced
- 1 tsp. finely chopped fresh rosemary
- 1 tsp. finely chopped fresh sage

Directions

- 1. To brine chicken: Put 1 tbsp. of peppercorns and 1 tsp. of coriander seeds into large saucepan and toast over medium-low heat, swirling pan, 2 to 3 minutes. Add 2 cups water and salt; raise heat to medium high and stir until salt dissolves. Remove from heat; add remaining water and chili. Let cool.
- 2. Rinse chicken and place in plastic container just large enough to hold it. Immerse chicken in brine. Refrigerate 2 to 3 hours or overnight.
- 3. To make lemon curd: In medium

- saucepan, whisk egg yolks, sugar, lemon zest and juice. Stir constantly over low heat until thick and hot but not simmering, about 15 minutes. Remove curd from heat and whisk in butter a little at a time until smooth. Press mixture through fine-mesh strainer over small bowl. Cover and set aside to cool.
- 4. Remove chicken from brine; rinse and pat dry completely using paper towels. Let chicken come to room temperature, 20 to 30 minutes.

5. Preheat oven to 450°F. Coarsely crush remaining peppercorns and seeds. Transfer to bowl; stir in herbs. Add 3/4 of this mixture and 1 tsp. water to lemon curd.

6. Gently slide fingers between skin and meat. Using hands, spread half the lemon curd under skin from breasts to legs. With kitchen twine, tie legs together. Brush remaining curd evenly over chicken, then sprinkle with remaining spice mix. Pour 1 cup water into roasting pan and place chicken on rack in pan.

- 7. Roast chicken for 30 minutes. Reduce heat to 325°F and continue roasting until skin is golden brown and juices run clear when thigh is pierced, 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 hours. Add 1/2 cup water at a time to pan if it starts to dry out. Let stand 15 minutes before carving.

Besides the ups and downs of his time at Apple, Steve deals with family drama, taking years to acknowledge that he fathered his ex's daughter, Lisa, and then struggling to find a way to make things right.

OK! Q&A

Crisscrossing the world and tasting the local fare sounds like the perfect vacation, but for Booze Traveler's Jack Maxwell, it's his day-to-day job. Read up on the star who's "living out his dream."

You had guest roles on scripted TV shows before this gig. Did you always want to do a reality show?

I wouldn't say I've always wanted to do that, but there are some benefits. I don't have to learn a bunch of lines, and I get to go around the world, have fun and drink!

Has there been one cocktail that you would call your favorite so far?

Caldo de Frutas in Guatemala — it's a fruit moonshine with a wonderful taste that hides the alcohol...which can be dangerous! But when it comes to travel, I look forward, never back. So hopefully I can call the next drink my favorite and have some wonderful memories. It's really about the people I meet, not the places I go.

Catch

What's the weirdest thing you've ever imbibed?

I'd say it's a tie between cow's blood in Tanzania and Cobra wine in Hong Kong.

Where would you most like to visit next?

I like going in blind. I love that the network chooses where I go, because it's always a surprise — and usually a lot better than I thought!

Oscar winner Charlize Theron’s favorite role these days? Doting mom! With the addition of a daughter named August to her family in July — like the actress’ 3-year-old son, Jackson, the baby is a U.S.-born adoptee — Charlize, 40, “finally feels complete,” says an insider. “It’s Charlize, who said after bringing Jackson home in 2012 that she’d always known she would adopt, “has wanted to add another baby to her family for a long time,” says the source. “She thought the adoption would happen when she was with Sean Penn, but even after they split she was determined to go ahead with it.” As for Jackson, he’s been busy flexing his big-bro muscles. “Charlize was careful to involve him in every step of the process,” adds the insider, “and he adores August. He sings with her and wants her to watch cartoons with him. He’s just so excited to have a little sister.” All together now: Aww!

UPDATE

THE 5 HOTTEST ANTI-AGING SECRETS FOR FALL

Growth Hormone: The Long-Awaited “Fountain of Youth”?

Everybody's talking about human growth hormone (hGH). It's been featured on The Doctors, The Today Show, Good Morning America, Fox News, and CNN.

Allure magazine, in its “Anti-Aging Special” issue, highlighted growth hormone as its year-end call-out. Shape magazine began a recent growth hormone article with the provocative lead in: “When you see a 50-year-old actress who can pass for 35, you can bet that good genes aren't the only things responsible for her youthful glow.” But when the internationally famous TV host himself told his audience about an oral compound that's been proven to increase mean, serum (blood) growth hormone levels by 682% and said, “I have been searching for this from the day we started the show. I've been looking for ways of increasing hGH naturally because I don't like getting the injections...” OMG!

Almost immediately, this underground “miracle pill” became a full-blown “anti-aging” phenomenon. The compound is being sold under the trade name SeroVital®-hgh, and it's quickly gaining an almost “cult-like” following because, let's face it... something that just may have the power to reduce wrinkles, tighten saggy skin, decrease body fat, increase lean muscle mass, boost energy, rev up sex drive, and make you look and feel decades — not years, but DECADES — younger is, at the very least, irresistible... especially when it's protected by not one but ten U.S. Patents.[‡] But is there a catch? Get all the facts at SeroVital.com. SeroVital is currently available at all Ulta stores, Kohl's, select GNC locations and direct from the manufacturer at 1-800-829-1450 or SeroVital.com. The European Wrinkle Pill!

The one compound cosmetic companies don't want you to know about

Have you ever noticed how topical cosmetic skin creams always talk about improving the "appearance" of the skin or "visibly" reducing wrinkles? They all contain wussy "appearance" qualifiers, because none of them can claim they change the skin's structure (not even Estee Lauder or La Mer with its $300 wrinkle cream, just to mention two). That's why a revolutionary new "anti-wrinkle" compound called UniLastin is causing such a stir. This oral compound has the power to make your skin younger. Not younger looking... actually younger. We're talking about rebuilding your skin, making it thicker and more dense (think less likely to wrinkle and sag), even decreasing wrinkles... not merely the "look" of wrinkles, but literally decreasing their depth, thereby actually smoothing the skin as it improves the underlying cellular matrix. There's not a single cosmetic moisturizer, serum, or cream out there that can make those kinds of claims. And because UniLastin works systemically (throughout the entire body), it's able to improve the skin everywhere, from the face, neck and décolleté to crepey arms, loose abdominal skin... even buttock sag and elbow wrinkles. It's sort of like a facelift for your whole body... from the end of your nose to the tips of your toes! This unique, total body, anti-wrinkle complex is called UniLastin™, and it's available exclusively at UniLastin.com or by calling 1-800-456-6519 (promo code AGEPIILL22 gives you free shipping†). About $79.

Can't Sleep?

It might be Stress Related Sleep Disorder™ (SRSD)

On any given evening, more than 100 million Americans have a hard time getting a good night's sleep. And almost half of those people can't fall asleep or stay asleep because of stress and something we call Stress Related Sleep Disorder (SRSD). What's worse, when you don't get enough sleep you become more stressed, and a vicious cycle begins. Ultimately, the results can be the classic signs of getting older: fatigue, lack of focus, irritability, poor memory, and moodiness.

Unfortunately, many of us are taking the wrong kind of sleeping pill... one that does little or nothing to combat SRSD but can leave you feeling "hungover" in the morning. But all that's changing thanks to Relacore Deep Sleep. It's the first and only sleep aid specifically developed to break the sleep-stress cycle... and it's helping Americans fall asleep quickly and wake up rested and ready to take on your day. If you're ready to finally get some sleep contact Carter-Reed at 1-800-530-3074 or online at www.RelacoreSleep.com. Use promo code SLEEP21 and get free shipping.†

GET PAID, THE JLAW WAY

"I'm over [finding] the 'adorable' way to state my opinion," Jen stated.

Jennifer Lawrence is hungry... for justice! The actress, 25, published an essay titled "Why Do I Make Less Than My Male Costars?" on Lena Dunham's feminist website, Lenny Letter, in which she stated that despite her financial security (Forbes named her the highest-paid actress of 2015), she was angry to learn she was paid $5 million less than her male American Hustle costars for their work on that film. "I got mad at myself. I failed as a negotiator," she wrote, noting that she "didn't want to seem 'difficult' or 'spoiled,'" by fighting for a better salary. But now she's encouraging all women — including herself — to be direct and stand their ground when it comes to pay. "I don't think I'm the only woman with this issue," Jen added.
